HARRY LEHR STILL MILLINERY FIRM A WINE BOOMER?

Really Is and Further Draws $40,000 a Year for Expenses Alone.

That Harry Lehr is a wine agent even even hinted at

even hinted at.

And Lehr is only one of eighteen.so runs the affidavit, who draw unlimited expenses from one champagne house in trying to make it the preferred "fizz."

At last six of them get more than $\text{SMITM}$, who lives at One Hundred and Sixteenth street and Seventh avenue. and George M. Loughlin, of Bath Beach. $40,000 a year in expenses, says the man who swears to all this about Harry Lehr.

And the consumer pays for it all-at

Two wine agents are quarrelling and that is the wherefore of all this pother about Lehr and the others, who get $40,000 or more "to spend."

One wine agent calmly tells the court that the other wine agent worked for him at $400 a month and an unlimited expense account, and that INo. 2's ingratiating personality made him indis-pensable. But indispensable or not, No. 2 went over to another house-at how many thousands a year is not stated-and hegan to drink another wine.

No. 1 wants No. 2's taste changed back again by order of the court. There are affidavits longer than a wine bill at the Waldorf and stories of contracts kept and broken to support each contention. Some of the others who are said to get as much credit as Harry Lehr are: Samuel Elzas, Carl Runk, Walter Will-tams. Sam Robert, Edward Heineman, Sam Wineman, Joseph Deering, Morris Quintan, Le Roy Taylor, Emil Fisher, Arthur Blanchard, Charles Bell, Lou Lewis and Messrs. Bealski, Coburn, Burns and Neustadt.

Woman Who Had Unreasoning Dread of a Neighbor Hangs Herself - Husband Finds Body in Woods.

CLOSTER, N. J., May 7 .- Mrs. Mary Rekerot, the wife of a farm hand, committed suicide here to-day in a sensa-

For some time Mrs. Eskerot had been affing. About two weeks ago her mind said he had been misunderstood; that what he had said was that he would unreasonable fear of a man living in hand nor neighbors could comfort her.

About 4 o'clock this morning Eskerot awoke and missed his wife. He started to search for her and tramped through the woods apparently without success. was about to give up the search then he noticed a figure which appeared to be standing beneath a large tree. Rushing to the spot the man was hor rified to find his wife's body suspended from the tree.
